Need a second opinion?

We can help.

Second opinions help people make more informed, confident decisions about their care. They might uncover new treatment options or, in some cases, produce a completely different diagnosis.

Health Advocate simplifies the second opinion process. Simply reach out to our experts, who will take care all of the details... at no cost to you.

- Conduct a complete clinical intake
- Carefully review your coverage
- Locate the most qualified physician specialists with expertise in your diagnosis
- Schedule your second opinion consultation (in-person or virtually)
- Transfer medical records
- Answer all of your questions along the way

You receive a confidential second opinion report from your specialist to share with your care team. You and your loved ones get more peace of mind, knowing your care and treatment are on track.

Health Advocate's services are available to employees, spouses, dependents, parents and parents-in-law.
